

Mahon Walsh – Community Engagement Coordinator
Navajo

Yá'át'ééh shik'éei dóó shidine'é. Shí éi Mahon Walsh yinishyé. Tódich'íí'nii nishlí, O'Brien Clan (Irish) bashishchiin, Ilocano (Filipino) dashicheii, O'Brien Clan (Irish) dashinalí. Ákót'éego diné nishlí. San Jose kééhas'tí. Sháá'tóhó déé' naashá. Indian Health Center of Santa Clara Valley naashnish. Ahéhee'.

(English Translation)

Hello my family, people, and friends. My name is Mahon Walsh. My mother's Clan is Bitter Water, my father's Clan is O'Brien Clan from Ireland, my maternal grandfather's Clan is Ilocano from the Philippines, and my paternal grandfather's Clan is O'Brien Clan from Ireland. I'm an enrolled member of the Navajo Nation. I currently reside in San Jose, but my family is from Shonto Arizona located on the Navajo Reservation. I have worked for the Indian Health Center of Santa Clara Valley for over 2 years. I'm the Community Engagement Coordinator for IHC. I hope to see you out in the community. Thank you.

